

The Parable of the Salmon™ Intro

What can the beautiful salmon teach us about our very human spiritual journey?

The remarkable salmon make an extraordinary journey from saltwater to fresh water in order to spawn. They have a courageous drive to reach the place of their birth, to face whatever is thrown in their path to reach a location – a place they recognize as home.

The stages of the salmon's journey are a beautiful metaphor of the phases of our own spiritual development. As we engage with The Parable of the Salmon, we begin to recognize previously unknown distinctions about the spiritual path – its stages, challenges and the extraordinary gifts along the way.

Join us in this new, unique, enlightening exploration to:

- Begin learning how to locate yourself along the path
- Make sense of your journey (including losses and hardships) through the clear articulation of different stages
- See what is possible in each distinct stage instead of what popular teachings say
- Learn distinctions about the most effective spiritual teachings in each stage
- Find out how this well-grounded work can assist us and our communities in living together effectively and peacefully.

Date: Saturday, November 8, 2014

Time: 1:00 to 5:00 pm (sign-in and social gathering from 12:00 to 1:00)

Place: The Healing Collective (4231 Bellaire Blvd, Houston 77025)

Tuition: $75 ($50 for reviewers)

If you counsel or coach others, this introductory course can provide vital distinctions to recognize when a client's concerns may be a critical spiritual emergence.

Contact Monica Mullen

713-582-2585 – monica.mullen@yahoo.com

Nila Velchoff is a consultant, coach and workshop facilitator in the Language of Being, a technology for effective living from profound peace while being fully engaged in the world. She has extensive training in Ontological Mastership (the study of Being) and has led over 100 workshops and courses. After the loss in 2013 of her only child, Seth, Nila lives in devotion to the work she shares with a very special message about what is possible for humanity.

Monica Mullen is a bodyworker, Life Coach and workshop leader with over 30 years of experience. She has led hundreds of seminars and founded and operated a transformational training facility in Italy. Monica is a student of Ontological Mastership.